Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Communion

July 7th, 2019 - 10:00 A.M.

“Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.” —2 Kings 2:8

Prelude Jonathan Scales, steel pans

Call to Worship (responsive)

Leader: We’ve come from all places and all peoples to gather here today.

People: Some of us traveled across the ice, others came later in boats, still others of us waded rivers or arrived in airplanes.

Leader: The land we call home is richly blessed:

People: blessed with mountains and valleys, rivers and oceans, fertile earth, deep woods, and promising cities.

Leader: Here, a dream was born:

People: a dream of freedom from oppression,
a dream of hope for our children,
a dream of people in community under God.

Leader: We have called to the nations and peoples who gave us birth:

People: send us the voiceless, send us the fearful, send us the oppressed.

Leader: And so the dream of this nation continues;

People: God, help us to do your work until your dream comes true.

Hymn 340 “This Is My Song ”

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of freedom, set at liberty we who are captive, and grant us forgiveness as we confess our sin. Prisoners of self-interest, we disregard neighbors; we bolster our own egos at others’ expense; when slander is rampant, we seldom stop it; when rumors are rife, we seek not the source. Help us to check our destructive ways, lest we consume one another; and lead us to use our freedom in more loving ways. Amen.
