Welcome

Prelude “Muir Woods” Michael R. Hicks

Introit “For the Beauty of the Earth”

Call to Worship (responsive)

One: Praise be to God our Creator, source of our being and wellspring of life.

Many: Praise be to God our liberator, who sets us free and gives us hope.

One: Praise be to God the Word, love made flesh to dwell among us.

Many: Praise be to Jesus Christ, who feeds the hungry and seeks out the lost.

One: Praise be to God the Spirit, fiery light and rushing wind.

Many: Praise be to Holy Spirit, who inspires, challenges, comforts and sustains us.

One: Let us worship God – Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer.

All: Let us worship God!

*Hymn 409 “God Is Here!”

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Gracious God, you have given human beings dominion over the works of your hands. But too often we confuse this holy charge with having ownership. We then treat your creation as a resource to be used for our needs and our profit. We find ourselves reluctant to count the cost of our failure to be your faithful stewards until disaster strikes. And so we pray, show us another way, O God.

Holy God, your cry for wisdom and understanding echoes in our homes, our workplaces, our schools, our committee meetings, our legislatures and our courts. We confess that we don't always want to hear that cry, deciding instead to rely on familiar habits, comfortable assumptions, and quick conclusions. We ask that you show us another way, O God.

Merciful God, the apostle Paul proclaims peace, hope and grace are your gifts to us. And yet we continue to live in a world of “us and them”, without realizing that there can be no peace when many live in poverty and despair while we prosper, or while our society continues to discriminate on the basis of race, age, or gender. We ask for the grace to see the way to which you call us.
