MAY Tidings

There is truth in the old axiom, "April showers bring May flowers." The month of May is indeed filled with abundant opportunities for beauty. Different cultures may have different ways of describing it, but beauty is generally defined as that which brings joy, satisfaction, and meaning to life. The appreciation of beauty is an essential component of what it means to be fully alive and is a necessary quality for a healthy human spirit.

Thomas Moore, in his classic book Care of the Soul, asserts that beauty is critical for the well-being of the soul. He writes, "The soul craves beauty as the lungs crave oxygen." He goes on to say that if we lack beauty in our lives, we will suffer from "beauty deficiency" which often surfaces through such familiar disturbances as anxiety, agitation, worthlessness, and depression. He once suggested to a colleague who was struggling with a decision, "Why don't you go take a hike? I mean that literally. Sometimes a tree can teach you more than a book."

Ideas of beauty and spirituality have always been intertwined. More than a one-dimensional focus on physical beauty, the spirituality of beauty can even heal.

From Ignatian spirituality, we get the story of two friends who were walking down the road one evening and, after a while, they began to argue. As they went along, they shouted at one another, each trying to impose their view upon the other. Suddenly, one of them caught sight of the setting sun and pointed it out to their friend. Immediately the two of them ceased their arguing. They stood side by side in silence, gazing in wonder and awe at the beauty of the sunset. When the sun had slipped beneath the horizon, the two friends started on their way again. Only now, having forgotten what they had been arguing about, they walked together cheerfully, and at peace with one another.

This story reminds us that sharing an experience of beauty has the power to reconcile and restore relationships. Unfortunately, this healing power is not always recognized in our fast-paced, individualistic society. Beauty is a gift of the Spirit that nourishes and heals our souls. If we were to look for beauty each and every day, in each and every person, think of how much more pleasant the journey would be.

As you go through this month of May, be on the lookout for beauty in small and surprising places. The dandelion in the crevice of the sidewalk, the smile on the face of a passerby, even the song heard overhead while shopping, can all be windows through which beauty shines. It is true, in a very real sense, that the more beauty we perceive, the more beauty we project. And then, what a beautiful world this will be!

Celebrating the beauty of life,

MARK

BEAUTY IN SMALL AND SURPRISING PLACES

note from the associate pastor...

As some of you are aware, I will be making a journey to Israel-Palestine this month (May 18–27). I will be part of a trip sponsored by NEXT Church, a network of church leaders, lay and clergy, that seeks to strengthen the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) through building relationships and sharing ideas and best practices. The trip, which will be led by Bob Henderson, pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Charlotte; Tony Sundermeier, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Atlanta; and Jessica Tate, director of NEXT Church, has the following stated purpose:

- By “walking where Jesus walked,” gain greater biblical insights for preaching and teaching.
- By meeting with a broad array of Israeli and Palestinian NGO leaders, gain insight into one of our world's most vexing struggles for peace and justice.
- By meeting Christian, Jewish, and Muslim leaders, explore possible future mission partnerships.
- By traveling together, PCUSA minister and elders will forge bonds of friendship and support for years to come.
- By hearing from disparate opinions and perspectives, gain the capacity to draw informed and fair conclusions regarding present and future realities in the Holy Land.

The statement concludes, “The tone of this trip is intended to be one appreciative inquiry—not to endorse or defend any specific position, but to hear a variety of perspectives. The posture of leaders and participants on this trip will be to enter in to the various spaces as a guest, to listen and learn.”

STORIES OF PROMISE, HOPE, AND STRUGGLE IN THE HOLY LAND: A PILGRIMAGE OF LEARNING, LAUGHTER, AND TEARS

- DWIGHT

I'm grateful to you for your support: your encouragement, your prayers, and financial support (my expenses have been financed partly by continuing education funds and a grant from the Christian Nurture Ministry). I look forward to sharing my experiences and learning from this pilgrimage with you. Grace and peace,

“walking where Jesus walked”

session notes:

The Session held its regular meeting on April 9, 2019. Kathryn Forsythe opened the meeting by sharing a excerpt from Instruments of Thy Peace by Alan Paton, and then leading us in an opening prayer.

We noted the communications to Session, including a retirement announcement from Bobbi White, General Presbyter, and an email from Linda Walker.

Rev. Dwight Christenbury shared his report, and mentioned that he also attended a Mental Health First Aid training day focused on children and youth held by Henderson County Schools

Rev. Mark Stanley shared his report, and mentioned that he has also been working with a group in the community planning events around the 50th anniversary of Stonewall, and that he will be working on the 11th annual Easter sunrise service with other churches in the community.

We held a discussion about the size of the bulletin, and about ensuring space for the Ministries to share information about the life of the church.

Local Mission proposed, and Session approved, becoming a supporter of TrueRidge, helping families of deported persons.

Jock Aplin presented the report of the LGBTQ Network Selection Task Force on considering affiliation with More Light; Session accepted the report with gratitude, charging the task force to come up with an education and implementation plan.

For the Preschool, Ron Howard noted that Preschool Fun Day will be May 21, Preschool Graduation is May 24, and the Preschool Mother Day's Tea is May 10.

Session approved the requested sabbatical from June 8 to September 3 for Rev. Mark Stanley. Mark plans to pursue three goals, to engage in concentrated reading and study of the book of Psalms, to learn how to practice intentional meditation and to practice it as a path to greater insight and health, and to challenge himself to follow a renewed physical fitness program with the goal of becoming further energized for his continued service with Trinity.

Global Mission proposed, and Session approved, collecting shoes in support of the Church of Christ's Honduras Microloan Ministry

Several items for Building Use were approved, including a Swing Band Concert for Civitan on November 2, a meeting for Creation Care Alliance/Mountain True - May 14, and the Music Academy on December 14.

Session elected Mark Slaughter as Commissioner to the April Presbytery meeting.

Rev. Dwight Christenbury closed our Session meeting with prayer.

Peace be with you,

- KATHRYN FORSYTHE

Clerk of Session

Finance Update

- Through March we are $667 above budget in income and $6841 above budget in expense so we are a net $6174 negative to our budget estimates.
- Through March (25% of our year) we have received 29% of our budgeted pledges.
- Expenses in the areas of natural gas, mulch, and electrical maintenance have exceeded budget. Some may be timing matters vs budget.
- Our preschool is doing well so far this year vs. budget.
- After paying for our new roof and carpet in a couple rooms, our Capital, Long Range Maintenance, and Buildings & Grounds endowment earnings account for projects now have a combined balance of $21,000.

- TOM KARVONEN

Request: The number of donations coming in from member investment accounts is increasing. Our Finance Staff would appreciate receiving a heads-up when such donations will be coming into our account. Some companies do not indicate who the donor is, making it difficult for us to make sure it is booked against the correct pledge. For investment sales through Chuck Noegel at Wells Fargo, please advise Glenn Walker and Fitz Sthreshley. For donations coming in the form of a check or ACH transfer directly into Trinity's bank account, please advise Fitz and Tom Karvonen. Many thanks!

70½ or Beyond? Have an IRA? Here is a Giving Opportunity Unique to You

Federal government action has made IRA Charitable Rollovers a permanent part of the tax code. As such, individuals who are ages 70½ or older may make donations from their IRAs (by their IRA trustee) directly to Trinity Presbyterian Church without having to count the distribution as taxable income. This donation would be classified as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD).

A part, or all, of this donation can count toward your IRA Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). There are specific legal requirements that must be met.

One of the significant changes in the tax code beginning this year makes it more difficult to itemize deductions. This will make the QCDs more popular by not having to include them in taxable income.

For assistance in giving, please contact either Glenn Walker (g_lwalker@bellsouth.net; 891-2486), or Tom Karvonen (karvonens@bellsouth.net; 890-5091).

Always consult your own financial and tax advisors before making any gift that has tax implications. State law, particularly in North Carolina, does not always treat Qualified Charitable Distributions in the way the Federal Government does.

Trinity Co-ed Bridge Groups

The next 4-month schedule of TPC bridge groups beginning with May is in the process of being set up. If you are interested in joining this "not-too-serious" bridge group as either a regular or substitute, please call Myrl Jean Hughes at 891-5556 or Carolyn George at 388-1108 as soon as possible. Singles and Couples are welcome and needed.

The three-year Revised Common Lectionary for Sundays and festivals was produced by the ecumenical Consultation on Common Texts in 1992, and was included in the Presbyterian Book of Common Worship ; it may also be found in the Presbyterian Planning Calendar and the online Mission Yearbook for Prayer and Study. It provides scripture readings for proclamation in public worship, following the Sundays, festivals and seasons of the Christian year. The three-year lectionary cycle (Years A, B and C) focuses on different sections of Scripture each year, notably the Gospel of Matthew in Year A, Mark in Year B, and Luke in Year C (the fourth gospel, John, is prominently featured at certain times in each year).

Solar Project Update: Our panels are INSTALLED!! On April 30th, Duke Energy disconnected the power coming into the church. Sugar Hollow did the final connections of the solar panel system into the grid. Early that afternoon we officially "passed inspection" of their work by Henderson County, and that afternoon, Duke restored power and everything was working perfectly. (Before you ask: not through the solar system yet...not so fast, more steps to come...). Our new meter is scheduled to be installed in the first week or two of May at which point, we will schedule a commissioning ceremony with Sugar Hollow turning on the power to our new system. Here comes the sun!
